ROSA MYSTICA

E Pluribus Unum

We Hold These Truths

As the Sixties become a reality, let us pause to reflect on the strides made by Catholic education in the city of York. The 1961 issue of the Rosa Mystica endeavors to portray this progress by showing how American Democracy forms an integral part of our intellectual development. In truly Christian surroundings, American Catholic education strives to mold character by developing the mind, the heart and the will of its students so that they might reflect honor upon their Church and Country.

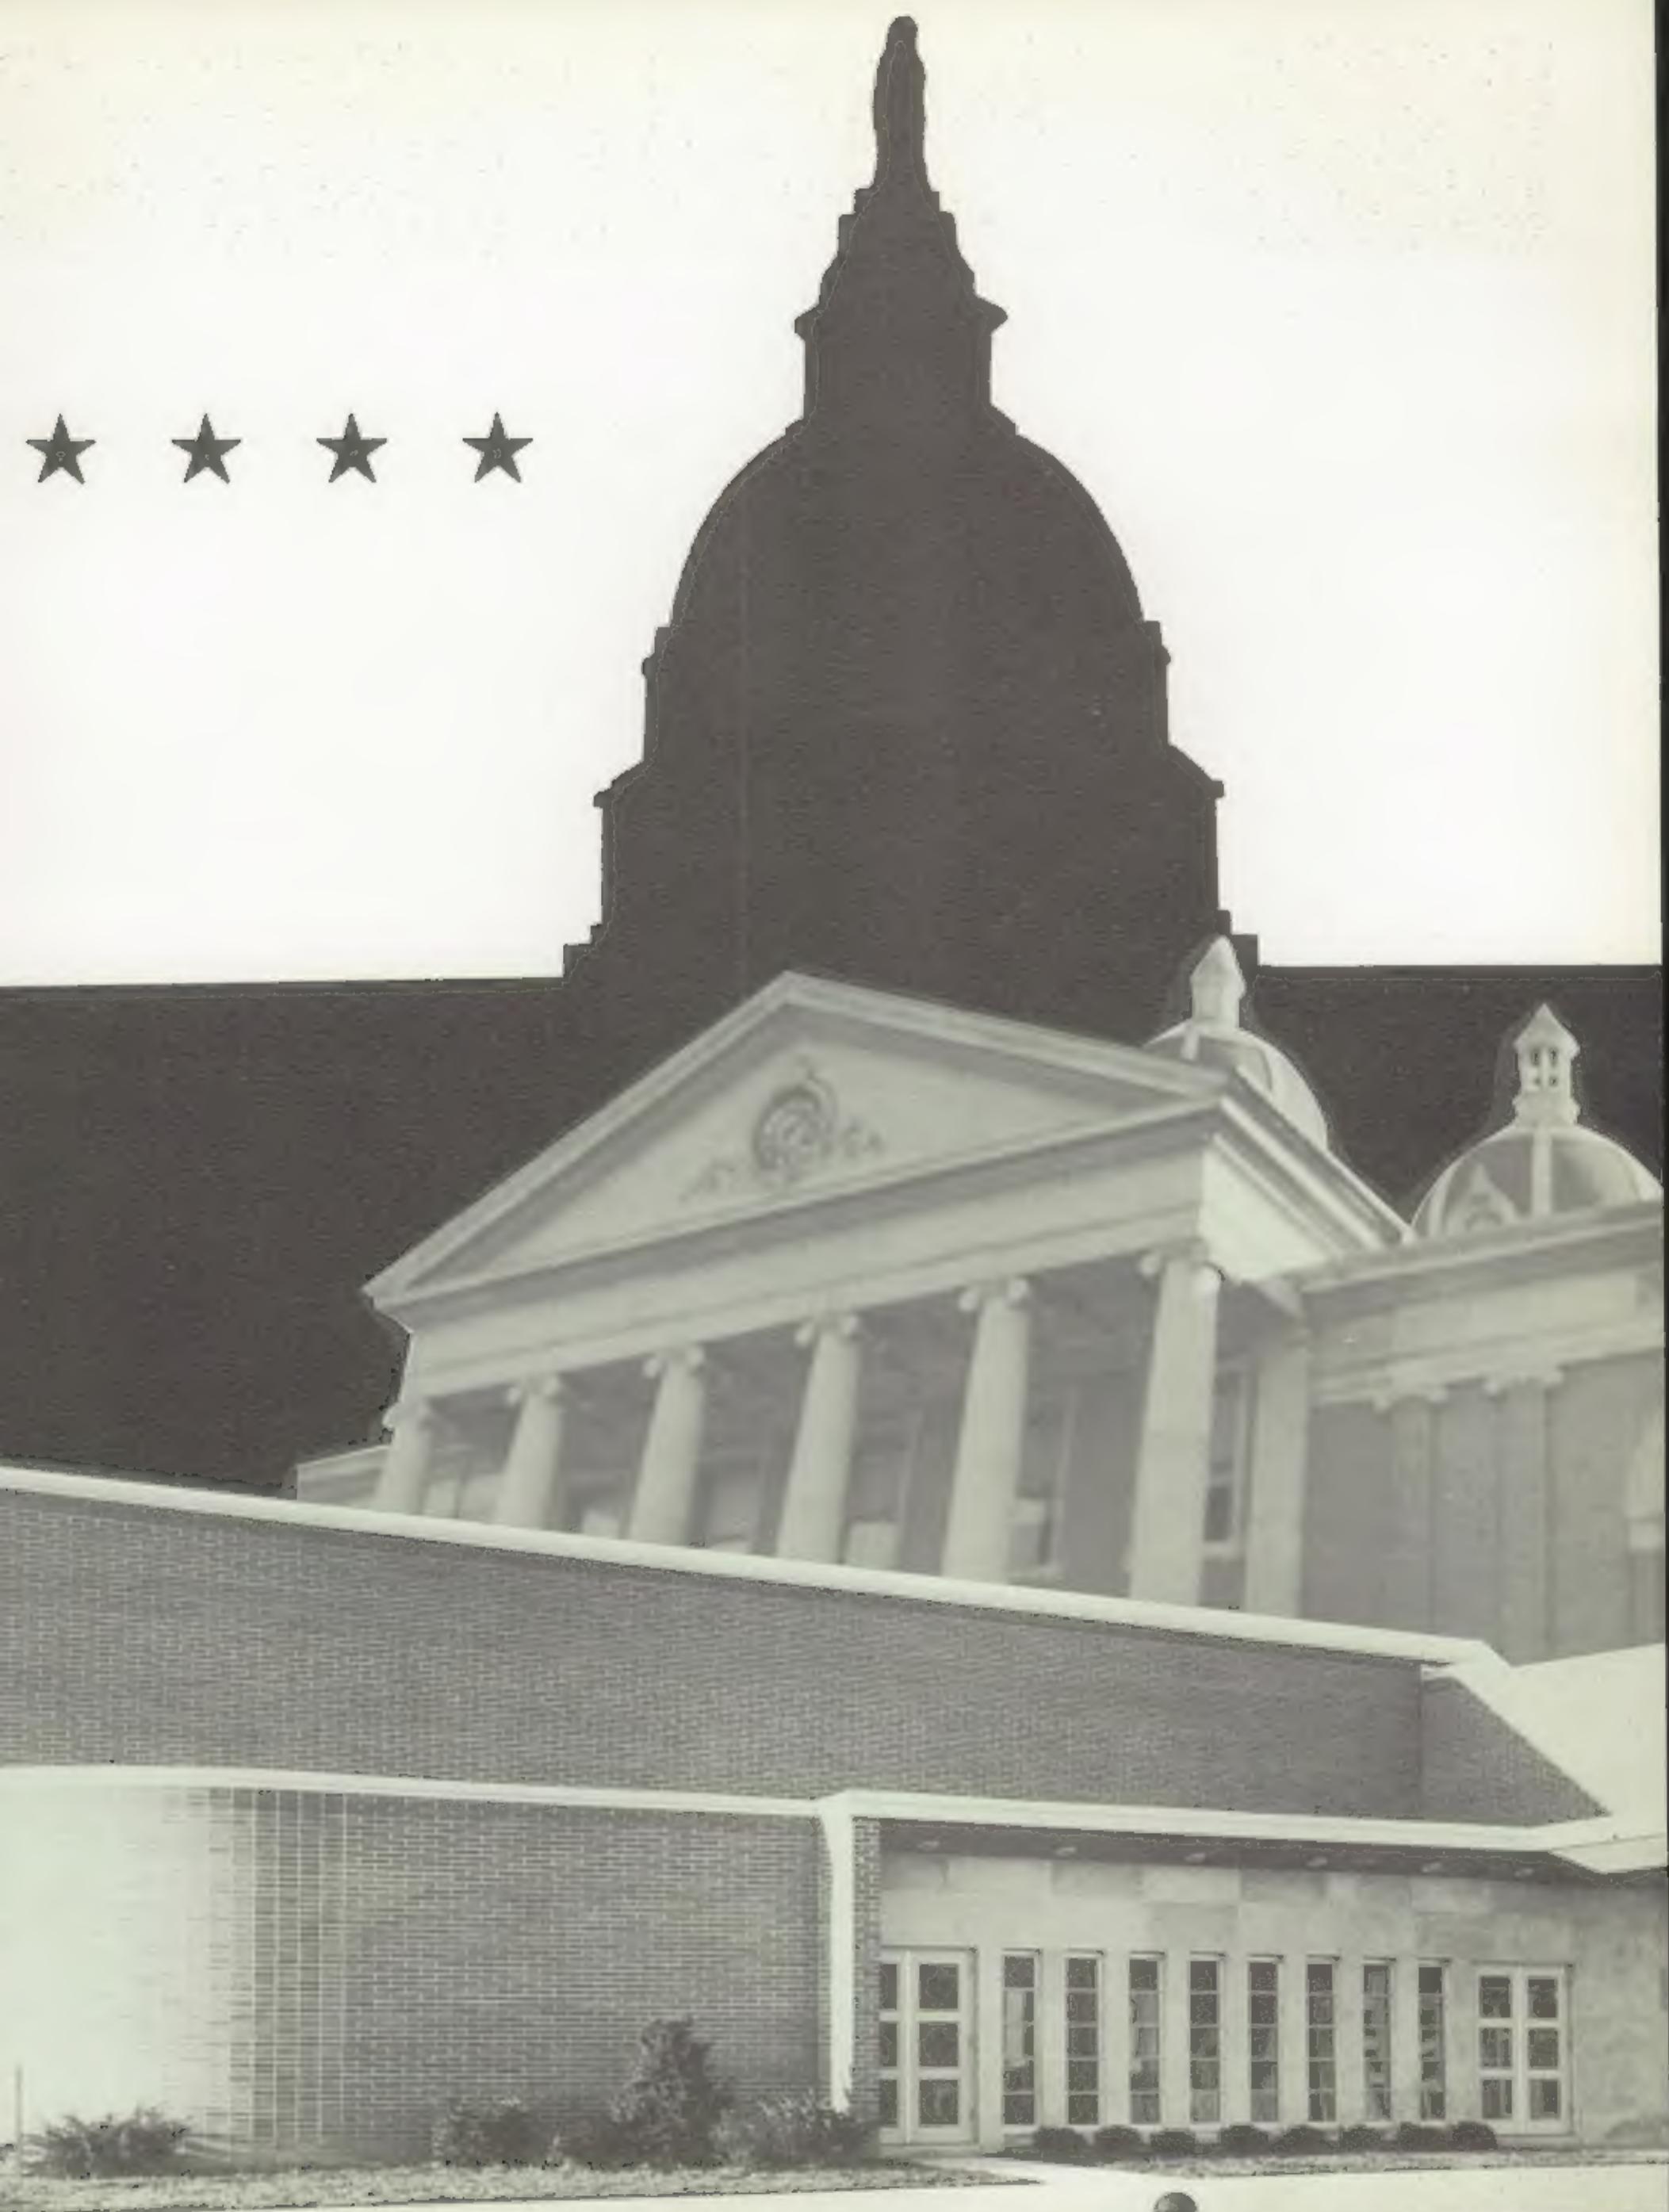

Education at York Catholic is democratic, for it encompasses all phases of school life. Built on the conviction that God is important in each of these phases, the curriculum of our school is, of necessity, Christo-centric. Our present and future achievements, resultant from our Catholic education, rest in our own efforts, in the maternal heart of Mary Immaculate, and in the Provident Hand of God.

Congratulations to the original staff of the Rosa Mystica on the occasion of its twenty-fifth anniversary! We extend heartfelt thanks to the pioneers of a Catholic publication in York—one which initiated a quarter of a century of achievements and activities providing a gallery of friends and treasured memories. It has recorded accurately York Catholic's educational history.

Paving the way for this expansion, the editors of the 1936 Rosa Mystica produced a yearbook which has brought honor to York Catholic High School. To originate such a venture took students with courage and foresight as well as the zealous, untiring work of its first moderator—Reverend Carl B. Brady.

May the members of the initial staff who honored our Heavenly Mother under her title Mystical Rose constantly remain in her gracious favor.

Diocesan Leaders For Democratic

*May constancy of faith, purity of love, and sincerity of peace
be around him.*

His Excellency
The Most Reverend
George L. Leech, D.D., J.C.D.

Congratulations to our Most Reverend Bishop George L. Leech on the occasion of his twenty-fifth anniversary of his episcopacy! For these twenty-five years we have undertaken the role of 'Defender of the Faith' and 'Apostolic Father' of the Diocese of Harrisburg.

In fulfilling this office as spiritual leader and educator, the Bishop judges with great care in the responsible task of molding us fervent Catholics and strong citizens. In offering his life so unselfishly in the service of God, he serves our fine goal.

Today we extend our heartfelt thanks and felicitations.

Education

God, the Divine Pastor and Ruler, has seen fit to place over our diocese and school, these capable leaders, enabling them to further by their teachings and examples the salvation of those entrusted to them.

With zealous perseverance these devoted servants have worked unceasingly to raise the standards of a fuller education, and so prepare us that we may confidently and ably take our places in a Democratic society. They have inspired us in our effort to cultivate Christian virtues displayed by the good example of their daily lives.

The student body of York Catholic greatly appreciates the help given and time spent by these foremost educators in providing us with the opportunity of a qualified education and the means of attaining our ultimate goals.

The formation of a well educated Catholic and responsible citizen is the major concern of Monsignor Robert Maher, our School Superintendent.

Our dedicated Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Reverend Walter H. Shauil, devotes himself to furthering Catholic education in our diocese by his indefatigable zeal.

Our Auxiliary Bishop of Harrisburg, The Most Reverend Lawrence L. Schott, watches benevolently over the growth and development of the students of his diocese.

REVEREND LEO N. BIERSTER
Principal

The authorization conferred on our Principal by Christ is triune. It is Legislative. . . . He has adopted and fostered rules of conduct which guide and encourage the students under his jurisdiction toward the highest and most worthwhile ideals. It is Judicial. . . . He has watched with tireless vigilance over each soul—treasures entrusted by our dear parents to his care. He has shielded us from harm during this easily influenced period with the mantle of protective strength. It is Coercive. . . . He has imposed justifiable retribution on those of us who have not upheld the exemplary ideals that we of York Catholic High School must maintain. In truth, Father Bierster has been our guide and exemplar in all these administrative facets . . . an un wavering beacon of knowledge and experience, imparted with justice and determination.

Y C's most loyal supporter, Father Bierster, diverts his attention from Bishop Leech during the opening minutes of the York-Harrisburg clash. The Bishop's Secretary and Father Meluskey are engrossed in the game.

How masterful is kindness in its influence over our dispositions, and yet how gentle, quiet, consistent, and successful!

PRINCIPAL

Civil dignitaries are cordially welcomed at York Catholic. Father Bierster and Mayor Fredrick A. Schidling confer on matters ranging from civic interests to the mayor's grandson, a freshman at York Catholic.

The minds, hearts, and ideals of the students of York Catholic are lifted up with Father Bierster's in our weekly Mass.

The expression of gratitude to you, our beloved and esteemed Pastors, for another year of your devotedness to us at York Catholic, finds words inadequate. Your constant endeavors to sustain and support this, our diocesan high school, claims our sincere appreciation. Realizing you are the bulwark of strength which lends courage and counsel to our youth, we want you to know that we aspire, to the best of our ability, to justify your countless efforts in providing this cherished privilege—our Catholic education.

Ambassadors of our Catholic Education . . .

In all sincerity and with deep appreciation, we the Class of 1961, pay special tribute to our Faculty who have been an inspiration to us during our memorable York Catholic days. Through the combined efforts of our religious and lay teachers, we have endeavored to attain high educational standards. By their guidance they have helped us lay the groundwork of learning and virtue.

We will always be indebted to these, our Counselors, Friends, and Teachers. Through their conscientious fidelity, they have imparted to us the wisdom and understanding, the character and courage required for the successful acceptance of future responsibilities.

Co-operation, good will, and enthusiasm spelled out the Spirit of '76 as Campaigners and their Managers barnstormed throughout school-corridors, lunch-periods, and assemblies. Friendly rivalry prevailed and student administrators launched a new platform one proposing modern ideas for the promotion and betterment of democracy in our school.

The Homecoming Dance and the crowning of the queen highlights the socials of the school year. This year, the Lobby and Cafeteria were transformed into a Parisian Street scene, and a Cafe. Mary Ann Doll and her lovely court reigned over the enchanted evening.

With the acceptance of the President's gavel, Peter Mangan takes on the responsibilities of his new office. These obligations pertain to the school, and in particular to the students. He represents us, and our duty is to inform him of our views and ideals. Thus we are afforded the chance of gaining new and better programs.

York Catholic's scholastic program emphasizes Democratic Living as an essential. All students entering our "hallowed halls of learning" are given an equal opportunity to advance in any of the fields offered if they are willing to put forth effort.

Through languages, sciences, and business offerings a York Catholic student finds the Course of Study suited to him one that will best develop his God given abilities. He is guided and adjusted through a well planned testing program and capable experienced Counselors. Reading programs, both Developmental and Remedial, carry students through their need to achieve.

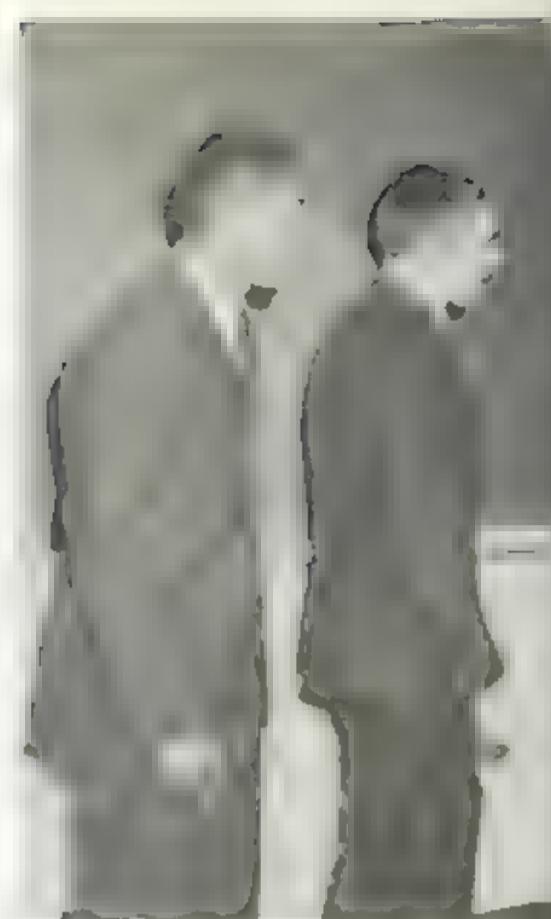

Religion, the study of God, prepares us finally to take our place in adult life as children of God and citizens of these United States. We cannot be good Catholics worthy of the name, without first being good Americans with a sense of loyalty to our country. And so, our Catholic education enables us to go forth as qualified citizens to live according to the Democratic principles implanted in us through our selected courses here at York Catholic High School.

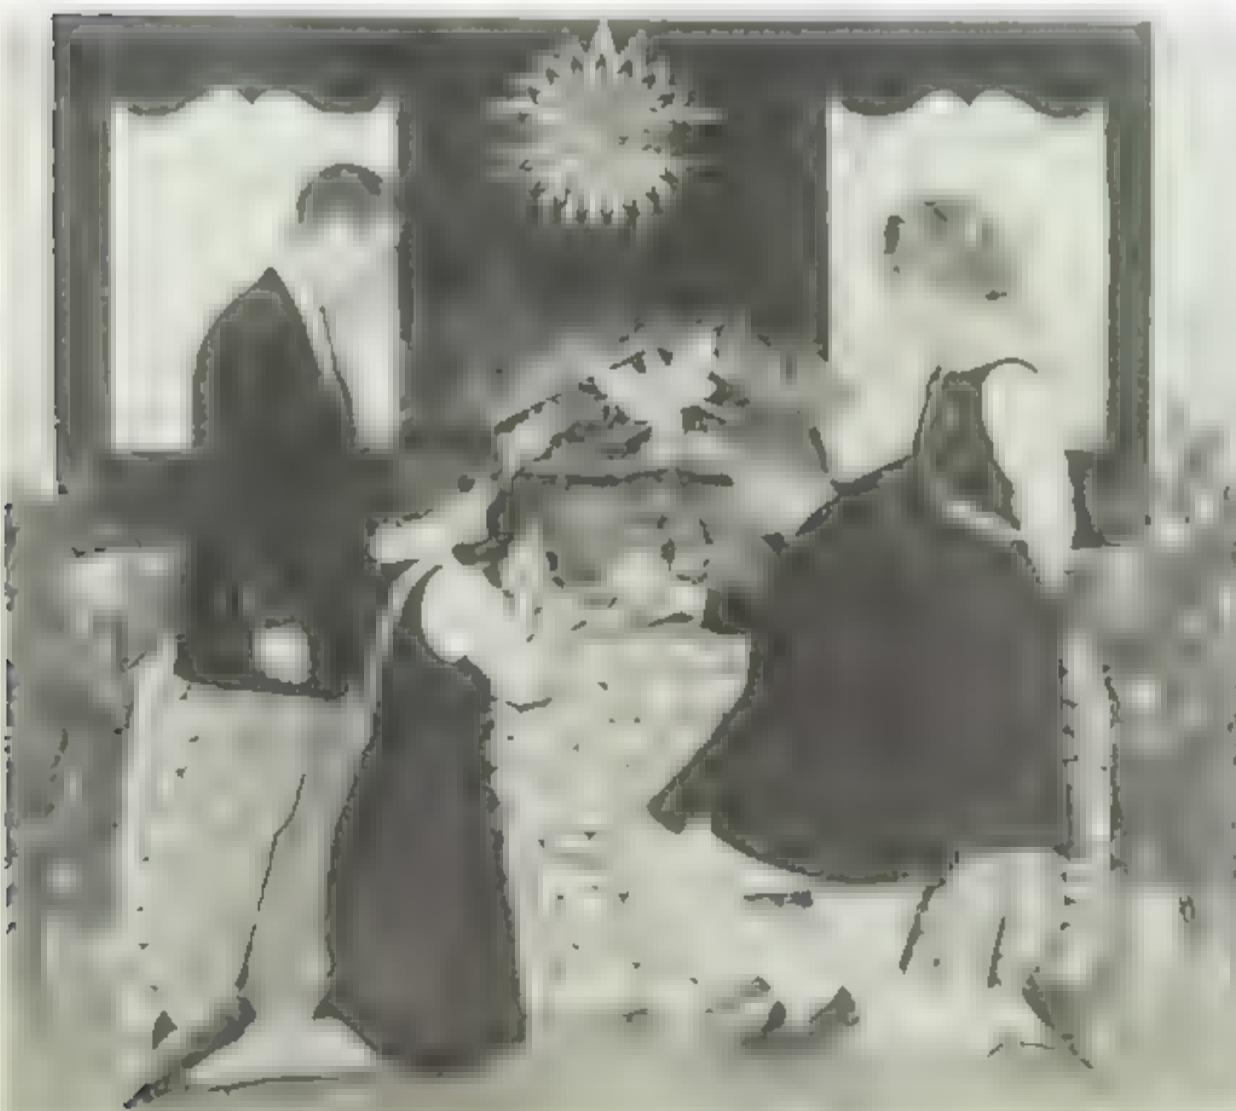

STUDIES

Advent Wreath Ceremony is now a tradition at York Catholic. Each of the years is represented when respective Representatives light "their" candle. Peter Mangan and his Senior Class opened this religious exercise.

Art class? No, Father Flavian's diagrammatical way of teaching the channels through which we received dogmas of Faith. To Paul Smith, Claire Peters, and Thomas Huber it presents no difficulty.

Catholic Life is Catholic Living

The close of the Advent Season brings us the true spirit and meaning of Christmas. In the main lobby, students gather to read the O ANTI-PHONS and assemble the Crib.

Father Bierster, conducting Father Gerald Conmy, C.S.C., on a school tour, poses with Dianne Perinotti and Margaret Chronister for school cameraman. Father Gerald gave sectional talks on Vocations.

George Melbert avails himself of the opportunity of weekly confessions at school. This privilege is given us during designated periods and after school on Thursdays.

Michael Helfrich, Ernest Carroll, and Sam Belcher, students of Sister Patricia Mary's Religion III class, follow George Sciangula and Richard Hagarman's explanation of chart outlining Precepts of the Church.

Sophomores Linda Peters and Sandra Gebhart prepare the Table of the Sick. This activity completes their study of the Sacrament of Extreme Unction. Michael Rooney shows how the priest is met with a lighted, blessed candle.

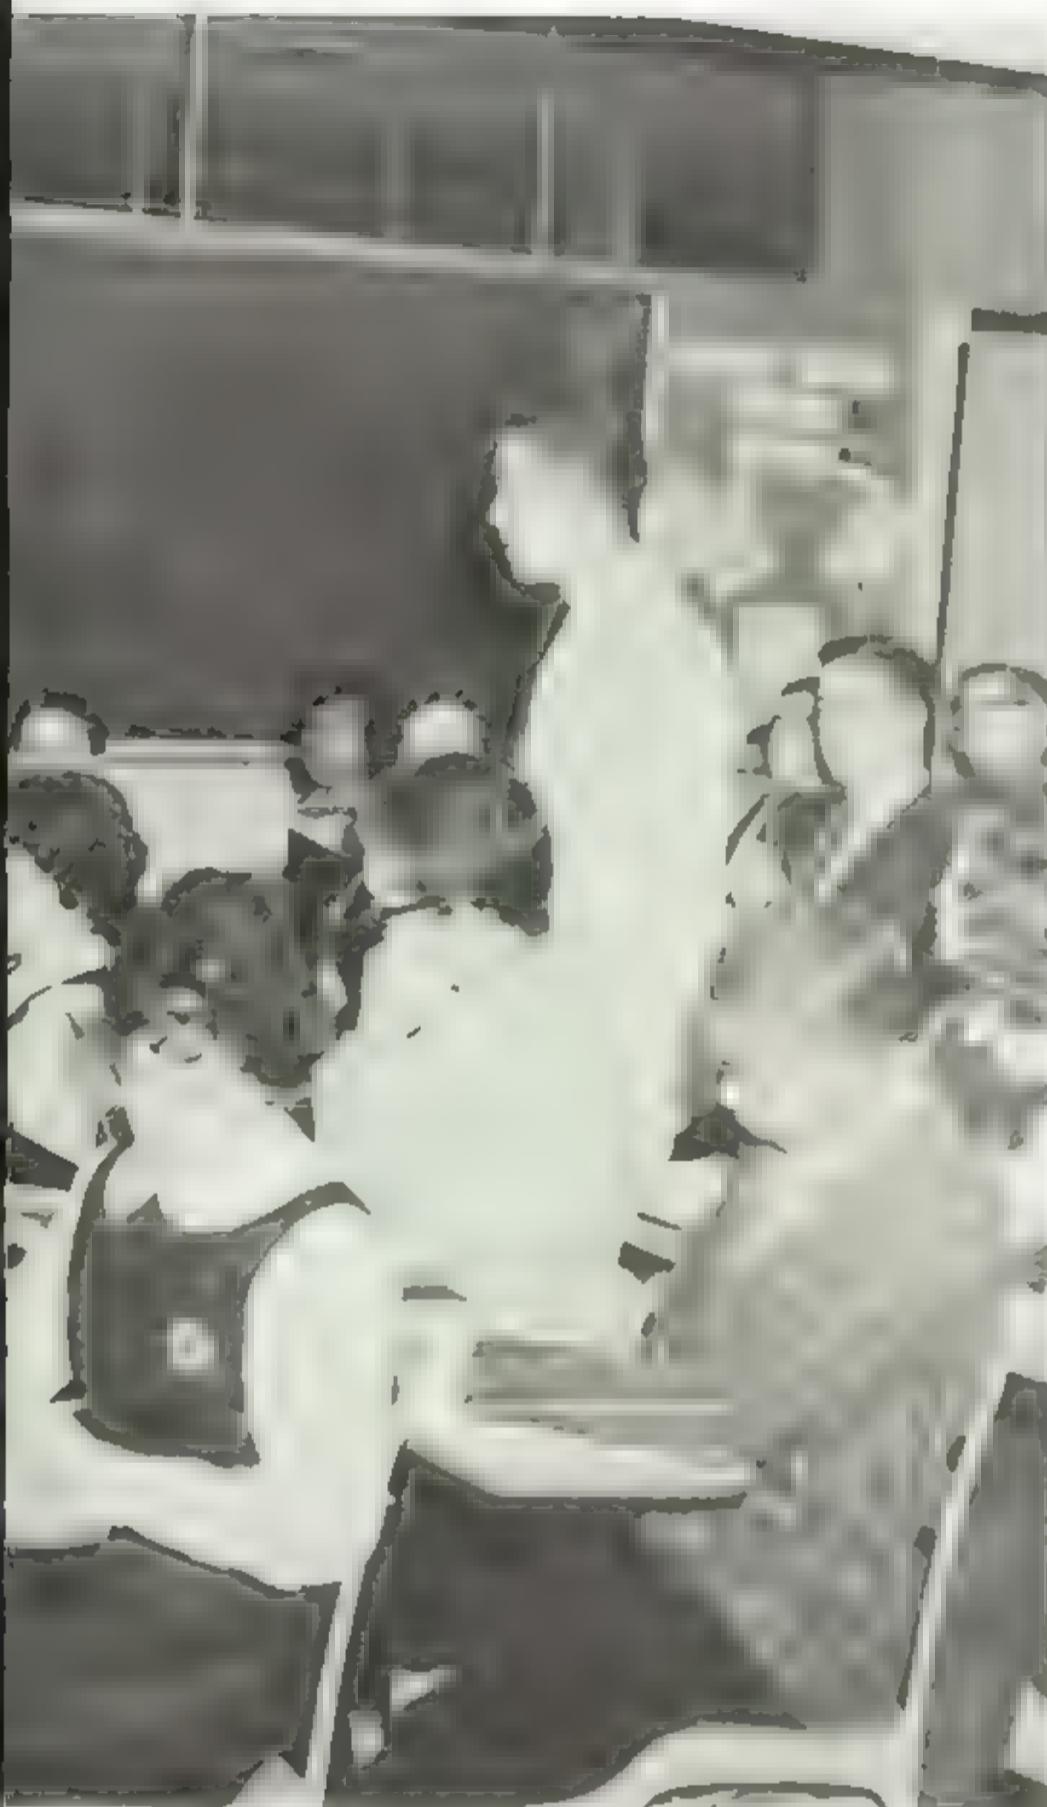

Power of Words

It's essay time for the Seniors. Sister Joseph Leona's helpful hints and suggestions produce enthusiastic results. Lynfred Bohle's question concerns the number and type references he should use.

It's Cavalier Poetry Time for Juniors. Thomas Zimmerman and Leonard Freed quote, "Why so pale and wan, fond lover?" to Charles Reeder. Dominic Arcuri counsels Cathy Shoop and Antonina Guifrida to "Gather ye rosebuds while ye may." Sister Melchior, Lawrence Bowman and James Burger are critics of expression.

Father Felician (William Sterling) blesses Gabriel and Evangeline (Richard Harteis and Sonia Chronister) in their betrothal ceremony. American Literature I affords many opportunities for dramatization

Are you listening? Michael Wertz, Mark Beddia, and Linda Melbert hear recordings of Traditional Ballads in their English Literature class. Bonita Landis is intent in following the meter from her poem.

"Trigonometry Made Easy" by Sister Caritas. No, not a book, but Sister's way of explaining the fundamental principles of "trig" to her Senior Class. Ruth Bievenour, Michael Marks, Vincent Hawkins, Jane Wherley lend their participation by demonstrating various line-functions of an angle.

Sister Mary Josephine's Algebra II Class compares calculations with Robert Bastress' board-proof. Catherine Frantz explains the process of Linear Equations. Thomas Felty, to the satisfaction of the other class members, shows accuracy of Bob's answers.

Keystone of Science

Skillfully handled, the Leroy Printing Set aids the Senior Mechanical Drawing Class in accuracy of lettering. Encircling Sister Elise are: R. Haas, L. Bohle, S. Loka, D. Sponier, T. Urey and J. Darinsig.

It's really easy . . . Mildred Bell and James Hoffman, being rated the two highest trigonometry students, share their abilities with their classmates in explaining the fundamental principles of trigonometry.

Cooperation gets results . . . Diligent practice soon makes any problem seem easier. R. Bartolomea, P. Ewing, T. Donovan, S. Keller, prove this statement to be true in giving a simple explanation of the theory of originals.

Exploring Physics. Seniors William Zech and Donna Williams operate the Wheatstone bridge to measure the resistance of a coil, with an able assist from Sister Miriam Regina

Meeting the Scientific Challenge

Participating in Lab. Jane Whetley lends a helping hand to other seniors Michael Ronan and Joseph Metzler as they demonstrate Archimedes' principle to the physics class

Taking an Active Part. Sophomore biology students Dorothy Huber, Louis Klein, Patricia Eck, and Patricia Ewing compare observations in studying the intricacy of shells and starfish. Their newly acquired specimens arouse the keen interest of them all.

A Serious Experiment. The distillation of water commands the complete attentions of Katharina Keifer, Vincent Staub, Frederick Snyder, and Christine Hellrung. These juniors are participating in one of the many experiments that make up chemistry.

Purifying Water. Twins Bertram and Mary Ann Zech join forces as they demonstrate the process to freshmen students. General science classes enjoy the use of their lab in Brady Science Hall.

*Our Lady is a Seamstress
Patiently she bends
Over the world's workbasket
And mends and mends*

Dior Decrees! Fashion changes periodically, so Barbara Swalinski, Dorothy Wagman, and Susan Witmer check magazines for the newest innovations.

Home Economics . . . the Gentle Art

The Joy of Accomplishment! Sister Mary of Peace teaches Margaret Lowe how to efficiently remove the cake. Who's left with the pans? Roseann Sanders.

Going Up! Meeting the latest trend, shorter hemlines, Carol Owings prepares Katherine Otto's skirt for conformity as Diane Brillhart, Antonina Giffrida, and Kathleen Shoop approve.

Topping It Off! Concocting the finishing touch, icing for the cake, are Kathryn Clark, Mary Ann Doll, and Maria Mendoza.

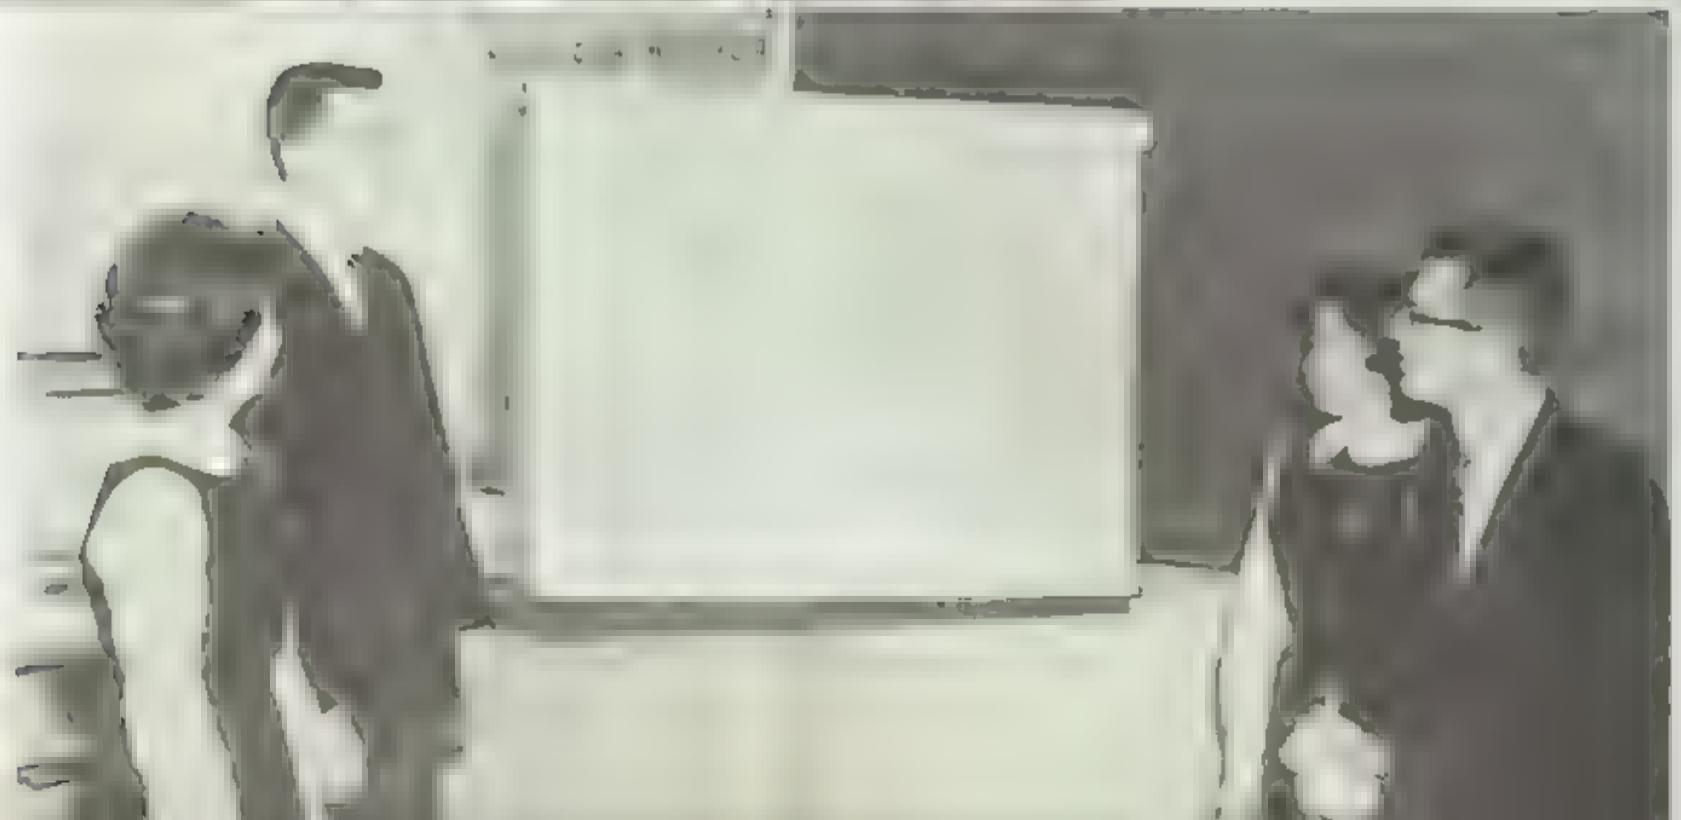

Last Straw! A springy cake satisfies the culinary touch of Patricia Varnes as Margaret Lowe and Lois Peters sniff with anticipation.

Exploring the

"Is there a Republican in the house?"
Peter Mangan looks around desperately in search of another Republican to help him and Pamela Eline out of "a bad spot." Opposing them are the victorious Democrats: Robert Duffy, Barbara Tuleya, Mr. Noel, James Hoffman, and Robert Reed.

Victorious Democratic Presidential Nominee, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, was greeted at the York Fair by some of our "Kennedy Girls": Rita Culbertson, Elizabeth Bartolomea, Judith O'Byrne, and Susan Sparler. Christine Jackson of Sec. 2C has the distinction of having her father at the wheel

New Frontier

"It's ours now!" Charles Marcello and John Miliziano, recently made citizens, admire their newly acquired flag.

Prayer Meeting. Leona Kitlinski (center) leads Gloria Raborn, Ann O'Toole and Susan Stover in a Pennsylvania Dutch invocation during a Freshman History class.

It's a small world, isn't it! Mr. Forjan explains to Elizabeth Bartolomea, Frank Duff and Susan Sparler the influence of the rest of the world on the United States.

Let's Cut a Record! The Junior-Senior Latin class enjoys the hit of an old American favorite. Thomas Felty at recorder, assists Dominica Lo Bianco with vocalists.

Latin . . . French Promotes International

Lisez-Vous Français? To liven interest in the French language Sister Denise has made available French translations of favorite English books and magazines. Mary-ellen Scarborough shows Elizabeth Mengel an idiomatic expression she has discovered. Thomas Luckman and Charles Marcello collaborate on the translation.

Good-Will

Le Garçon, Robert Linden, takes Le Carte de Jour from Michael Helfrich, Susan Sparler, Georgiana Frick, and Ernest Carroll as Junior French students apply their knowledge of the language in a restaurant scene.

Old World Meets New! Sister Dolores invites a competitive spirit into the Sophomore Latin class to nurture vocabulary knowledge. Joyce Hoffman, Patricia Stanko, Robert Wills, and Bernadette Turner approve Sister's method.

Spectate! Sister Marguerite correlates the religious theme of her bulletin board to teach her Freshman Latin class a new grammar lesson. Terrence Groft, Diana Hoke, and Thomas Kehoe add to their notes.

"Sauvez la France!" beseeches the Dauphin, Thomas Keesey, of Joan of Arc, Mildred Bell, as the minor characters stand in awe of His Royal Majesty. This three-act play, "Jean d'Arc," was presented entirely in French by the Senior French Class.

My! My! How high they fly! These boys aren't waiting to get to heaven to use their wings. The skins are trying for a basket and the shirts await the rebound.

Physical Energy is Mental Action

The Old Pro! Coach Sinkovitz, an old hand at showing people just how to do it, demonstrates to Junior and Senior girls the technique of holding a basketball for a one-hander shot.

Getting-To-Know You. Bonita Landis and Joan Comtois welcome Miss Mary Lou Singer, our new girls' physical education teacher. Miss Singer attended the University of Miami before she came to us in January.

"To be or not to be. That is the question!" Five are for and five against as they await the outcome. Although not a world-shaking event, these Sophomore and Junior boys are as concerned as if it were.

Miss Mary Louise Singer, Physical Education, Health. Miss Singer became a member of the York Catholic faculty at the beginning of the second term.

Practice Makes Perfect

And away we go! Junior typists are intent on improving typing accuracy and speed. Timed tests are the order of the day.

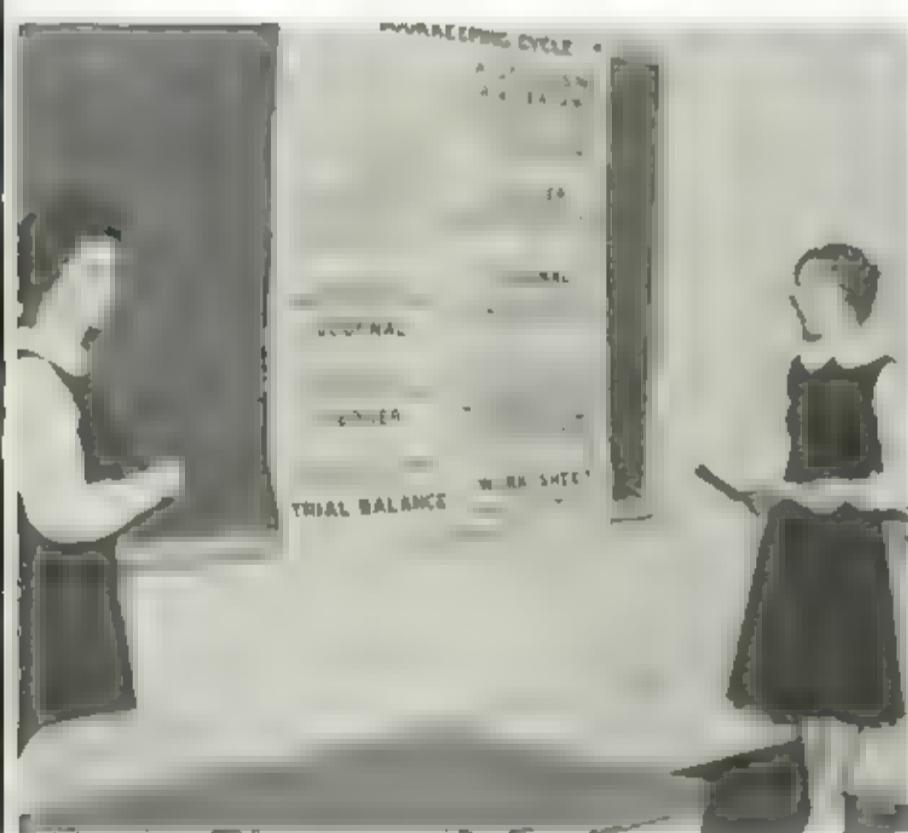

Industry Prevails. Sister Marcia Marie instructs Joanna Irwin and Joan Martin in the correct filing method. Simultaneously Pamela Eline and Barbara Munchel work independently at the typewriter.

◀ "Ready, Type!" Senior typists prepare themselves for those many college term papers by improving their speed and accuracy at the typewriter.

"We'll do the job." The Senior Secretarial Class is well trained in the use of duplicators, transcribers, the mimeograph, and calculators. Equipped with this knowledge, the Y. C. Secretaries willingly help in many school and parochial activities that necessitate the use of office skill.

"Are you getting it?" Sister Marcia Marie prepares the Commercial Seniors for their role as future secretaries with repetitious drill for speed in shorthand.

Debit or Credit—Bookkeepers Whirl! From Journal to new Balance Sheet, Patricia Daniels runs through the Bookkeeping Cycle with Sue Reilly. Are you with it, Sue?

Examples of the common good—our underclassmen
Though only learning the ways of democracy they have become gradually aware of this its primary purpose

In Catholic education, this purpose of general welfare takes precedence over every claim to special privilege regardless of source or character of such claims. So each student, by virtue of his membership in our student body, is entitled to learn the things best suited to his particular needs, to share in determining the purpose of education, to exercise the leadership of which he is capable, and to take part freely in the social life of the school.

These are the true marks of the democratic spirit in Catholic education. This spirit is as old as man's first concern for the well-being of his fellow man—merely the Golden Rule in simple action.

Catholic education has an around the clock concern in the development of young people. The strict academic curriculum fails in fundamental ways to satisfy the social needs of youth. Our broader philosophy of education accepts responsibility for the total development of young people helping them to a greater extent in finding themselves in relationship to the world around them. Our teachers have taken as one of their major responsibilities the sponsoring of a far flung program of extra class activities where a variety of interesting, well directed and supervised student activities has been introduced.

York Catholic's Activities Program is in effect, a laboratory for improving human relationships as well as for furthering the overall curriculum program. Student activities satisfy the pressing need of youth to identify their personal interests with group interests and to know the sense of security which comes from belonging to a group.

Our school provides the opportunity for its students to choose and explore their fields of interest. This opportunity provides a means of caring for individual differences and improving pupil-teacher relationships. It encourages young people to do their own thinking, reach decisions, learn self-discipline, grow in respect for and understanding of others and develop qualities of leadership by participating in rich and satisfying group experiences. Our students learn the basic elements of democratic citizenship.

ACTIVITIES

Music at Home and Abroad—The A Capella Choir crowns the area of vocal music at Y.C.H.S. A period of training, usually two years, is preliminary to membership. This group represents our school in the finest of traditions. Here they render a song from our own stage, but they are found in many other scenes from York to Washington. They serve as ambassadors for our school and are understood wherever they go through the universal language of music.

Sounds of Music . . .

The Choir represented York Catholic in York's Children's Concert. Sister Marita Cecilia here consults with Mr. Francois Jara Oschy, conductor of the York Symphony, who directed the rehearsal.

For many years Mr. Roman Shuman has given of his time and talents to rehearse weekly and conduct the orchestra on various occasions. This year we are again very grateful.

... Fill the Air

Of all the Catholic high schools in the diocese, Y.C. alone boasts of an orchestra. It is spotlighted many times throughout the year. A great number of our school programs are enhanced by orchestral strains. Its range sweeps from symphony to light musical scores. Credit must be given for its mastery of versatility in music.

This is Christmas

The Christmas Pageant at B. C. H. S. is unique and with genuine enthusiasm. The music, music department, and character to make this a gay and one of the most colorful of the year. The beauty and the mystery of the Christmas Season is set to music and for purchasing in bright, happy and inspiring songs and during

Hup! Two! Three! Four! York Catholic Band is put through the paces, and whipped into line by Mr. Louis Schmidt. We are most grateful for his services. When the Green and Gold march on the football field, the chest of every loyal Y. C. student swells with pride

Results prove the long hours of practice, and so York Catholic has every reason to be proud of its fine band. Whether adding to the rousing spirit of a football game, representing our school in civic parades, or playing for the enjoyment of the student body at our assemblies, they are the epitome in Concert Bands.

Teamwork—Our alert co-editors Judith Pfeiffer and Mary Louise Lydon pensively refer to the dummy when appointing assignments to fellow staff members.

Freedom of the Press . . .

Sharp Shutterbug! A camera bound in the true sense is our boy Bill Schintz. Whether the picture is posed or candid Bill always makes the scene. Reliable, earnest and co-operative under stress of pressing demands he always delivers his photo on time with a smile.

Behind the Scenes in Sports! Sports Editor Francis Zarnowski consults with photographer Joel Gray on suitability of cropping and enlarging action shots. Frank soloed the Fighting Irish through the season

Dummy Dilemma! Turning from the much resorted file, Bonita Frey checks through the well-thumbed dummy. Patricia Cowman surveys her manuscript copy with the dubiousness of an amateur typist.

In the Thick of It! The interest and spirit of Senior members is evident as each accomplishes his routine assignments. Work on the Rosa Mystica is completely extracurricular. Time-sacrificing "journalists" voluntarily give over study periods to edit this publication.

Rosa Mystica

It's Here! As Frank Borsellino distributes the Rosa Mystica, the eagerness of the Underclassmen is exemplified by Catherine Frantz as she receives the "finished product."

John Militiano strives to convince editor Francis Wagman that a Speed Graphic camera is needed. Checking his criticism of snapshots are Margaret Frantz, John Kennedy, Richard Harteis, and Patricia Bouger.

Ellen McGowan, Lawrence Freed, and Lawrence Day find their first lesson on layout by Sister Melchior rather pleasing.

If it's News the Fun found by Clare Wherley, Louise Bedard, and Margaret Chronister in checking mistakes in sportswriting does not seem to be shared by reporters William Zutell and Michael Wherley.

Corrections on leads by associate-editor Mary Anne Frank are cheerfully received by reporters Catherine Frantz and Robert Husson.

Father Bierster graciously gives some administration news to reporter Jeanne Buckingham.

“Spectator” has it

*Business managers of the school’s publications enjoy checking their typed labels with their original list before mailing Y. C.’s newspaper, The Spectator, to its loyal subscribers.*

Really now, what is that? . . . asks Mother Angel (Mildred Bell) as she scrutinizes with her lorgnette Mary Jo's (Jeanne Buckingham) decorations for Isabella's (Janice Eckenrode) original Rain Party. Isabella stealthily hides "W.R" (Carl Hensel) from her mother.

Curtain Going Up . . . Sunstroke

"Come As You Are." Remember? Neva Ringinberget and Eleanor Fogel (Rita Taylor and Regina Grimek) were in boudoir attire when invited. The frills and fancies of Brenda's (Paulette Helfrick) evening wear give Geronimo no concern. His role is an intercessory one—Rain, rain, rain!

Let the Heavens open and the rain fall . . . (Vince Hawkins) Chief Geronimo leads the cast of SUNSTROKE in their plea for rain.

Maryellen Scarborough, introduced in Hurricane Hill as Ella Williams, startles the Jackson family by being victimized with smallpox. Peter Mangan performs the preliminaries of his examination.

Michael Marks appears at a crucial moment to deliver a desperately needed supply of serum. Margo Curran encourages Marie Haupt, skeptical of modern medicine.

... Hurricane Hill

EPIDEMIC! Smallpox creates havoc when Dr. Preston (Peter Mangan) soberly delivers his diagnosis. The announcement sparks fear on the faces of Margo Curran and Bonita Frey.

Quick Naturalization! "With this piece of apple pie, I make thee a citizen of the United States," quips Michael Ronan to his refugee brother, William Kahley. James Hoffman, Elizabeth Mengel, Nancy Strausbaugh, George Melbert, Patricia Varnes, and Mary Anne Frank unanimously approve.

... Displaced Babysitter

Astonishment Prevails! Michael Ronan gasps at his "Baby Brother's" (William Kahley) adeptness in swinging Nancy Strausbaugh to the beat of Rock 'n' Roll. All of this is registered as shock on the faces of Patricia Varnes and Mary Anne Frank happening in on the commotion.

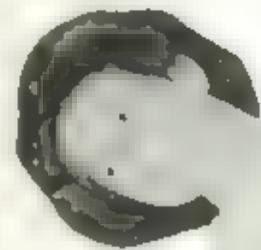

Behind the Curtain

We put the words right in their mouths! These helpful Senior Prompters gave unheard assistance to the casts of our three One-Act Plays—SUN-STROKE, MISPLACED BABY-SITTER, and HURRICANE HILL.

On Stage at Last! Industrious and faithful Senior Stage Hands dispel the worries of the casts by taking care of everything—from bowing-up Teddy Bear, to ringing doorbells.

High Hopes! The Varsity Cheerleaders rank among the most enthusiastic groups in the school. Featuring a nine girl combination of leaps and laughter, they preside over Y.C.'s Pep Rallies and Games. Co-Captains Barbara Tuleya and Elizabeth Mengel support Michele Cravotta, Josephine Fregapane, Mary Eileen O'Toole, Rita Culbertson, Julia Frey, Marilyn List and Patricia Quinlivan.

Presenting: The Green and Gold Marching Band. Here they give a meritorious performance during half-time of the Spring Grove Football game.

During the 1960 Football Season our "Fighting Irish" displayed an enthusiastic team spirit, overwhelming stamina, and courage against our most competitive rivals. Team: Standing: Coach Forjan, Ronald Vuxta, Ray Wagner, Vincent Orlando, Michael Wagman, Russell Jefferson, Robert Reed, Donald Sponsler, Thomas Luckman, Stanley Groft, Coach Sinkovitz. Kneeling:

Michael Ludwick (Manager), John Kennedy, Pete Clark, Frank Beddia, Charles Eck, Stephen Petrany, John Gierlack, Richard Harteis, Joseph Zagurski. Seated: Daniel Wagner, Michael Misterka, Joseph Topley, Richard Bartolomea, Brian Kirby, Terrence Culbertson, Robert Bastress, Joseph Petrany.

With the loss of twelve lettermen the "Fighting Irish" exhibited their 1960 football squad against a rough Middletown foe. The Blue Raiders scored in the first, second, and fourth quarters and walked away with a 19-0 victory.

A 34-yard T.D. sprint by Pete Clark and a drop kicked extra point by Bob Reed engineered the 7-7 "come from behind" deadlock with Susquehannock.

Before 3,500 fans at Harrisburg, halfback Joe Petrany scooped up a Bishop McDevitt fumble and scooted 67 yards to paydirt. The Crusaders, recovering quickly, ran away with a 46-6 decision.

"Bullet" Bob Scores Again! Senior halfback, Bob Reed, revives the ancient art of drop-kicking. Here he attempts an extra point against Spring Grove.

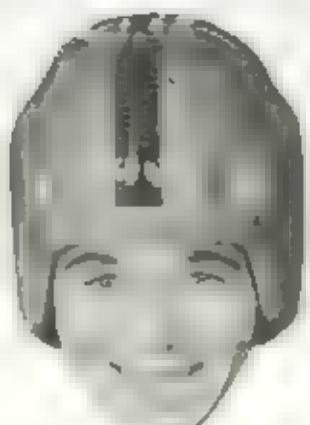

This Way Joe! Joe Topley slides off a "would be" Suburban tackler as he returns a second half kickoff. Topley, a Freshman, displayed fine running ability throughout the season.

Rocky to Paydirt. Junior quarterback Rocky Wagner returns a punt against the Warriors of Susquehannock. Throughout the season Wagner exhibited excellent running form. That same form enabled the Irish to tie Susquehannock, 7-7.

Run, "Man", Run! Joe Topley picks up valuable yardage against the Spring Grove Rockets on an end run.

"Green and Gold, Fight! Fight!"

"Action speaks louder than words," John Sinkovitz, head Football Mentor and Director of Athletics, seems to be saying. During the 1960 gridiron season Coach Sinkovitz inspired the 28 football candidates with courage, heart, and manliness. The former Notre Dame graduate often uses one of his Alma Mater's favorite slogans: "When the going gets rough, the rough get going."

"Now if he would've . . ." Lewis Klein and Michael Ludwick, team managers, discuss the strategy being used in the Central game with Don Sponsler (Guard) who was sidelined during most of the Irish gridiron activity.

Lady of Victory, Pray For Us. The "Fighting Irish" take time out at halftime to ask our Lady's Blessings for the team's safety and a good game.

"Good game, old chap." Vince Orlando congratulates a McDevitt player after an overthrow at the hands of the Crusaders. Vince fought, along with his teammates, against all odds and always extended his sportsmanship to others.

"Coach, Team, Pep, Steam!"

"What happened?" Rocky Wagner listens despondently as Coach Sinkovitz turbulenty discusses "that last play" in the Spring Grove game as Coach Forjan stands by.

On October 1, the Green and Gold earned their first taste of victory. Roy Wagner tallied twice as the Irishmen rolled over the Spring Grove Rockets.

Stalwart line play spearheaded by Captain Vince Orlando yielded only one touchdown in the second half to Delone Catholic. But Y.C. could not make up a 21 point deficit built up by the Squires in the second half.

At Lancaster Y.C. gridders lost the services of guard Don Sponsler and fullback Pete Clark. Rocky Wagner registered our only score in the 31-6 loss.

In the final contests the Green and Gold dropped games to two local clubs. The York Suburban Trojans and Central Panthers defeated Y.C.H.S., 38-6 and 28-13, respectively. Russ Jefferson scored twice, and Rocky Wagner once, as the Irish completed their gridiron schedule.

Although victories were few, we at York Catholic can feel justly proud of our football squad and for the inspiration and leadership the coaching staff has instilled in our boys. Thank you, Coaches John Sinkovitz and James Forjan.

Varsity Basketball

The Irish cage squad commenced a rough 1960-61 schedule by topping traditional rival West York. Senior John Watson broke the school's scoring record netting 33 points. We then ran into a three-game losing streak dropping tilts to York Suburban, M'ddletown, and Carlisle. The Irish came back strong, however, to earn verdicts over Central (York County Champs), West York, and Eastern. With a three-game winning streak the Green and Gold prepared for the Holiday Tournament at Spring Grove. We dropped a 50-52 heartbreaker to the hosts but crushed Hanover in the finale. Steve Freeland and John Watson were selected for the tourney's all-star team with Watson copping "Most Valuable Player" honors.

Hang On. Fast action in Eastern game catches John Watson and Steve Freeland attempting to capture a loose ball.

Oops, Just Missed. Frank Zarnowski goes high in air in attempt for ball against Lebanon Catholic

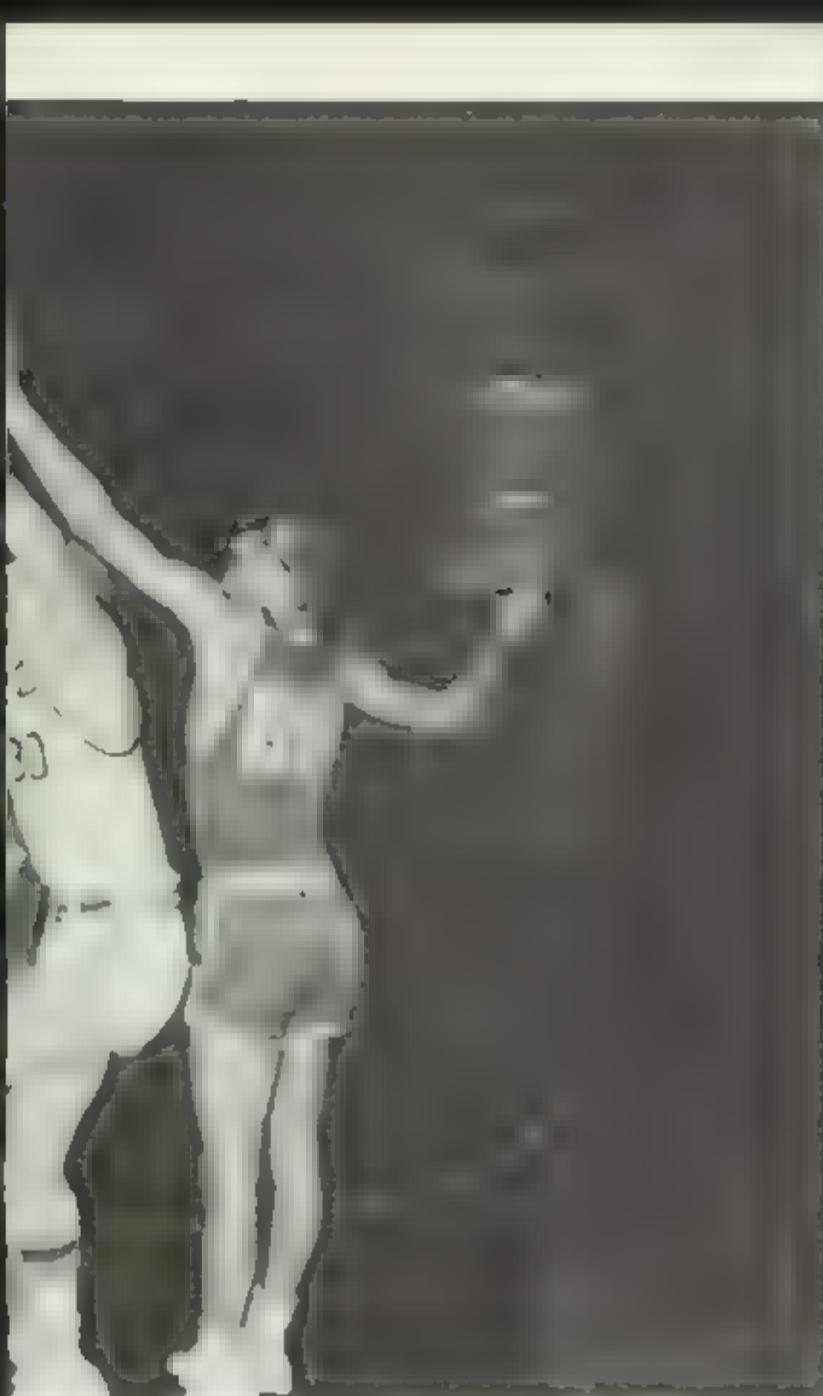

Up and in! John Watson, senior high scorer, shows why he is selected "Most Valuable Player" in the Spring Grove Tournament as he lays up another twin pointer.

Block that shot. Junior Mike McClain and senior Frank Zarnowski exhibit defensive genius as they foil a shot attempt by a Carlisle opponent.

We opened our Central Penn Catholic league season by jolting Delone 78-56. Tom Keesey paced the Irish victory with 26 points. Tracy Hall was the site of our next contest with the tall Bishop McDevitt squad. The Irish lost but John Watson again tied his own scoring record with 33 points. We got back on the winning side by crushing Lancaster, but lost a tight tilt with Lebanon. The big Green met and succumbed a new foe, Biglerville, and ended first-half action with a victory over Shamokin. In preparing for McDevitt we dropped another close game to Middletown. Y.C.'s cherished dream of defeating McDevitt went down the drain in the final six seconds as the Irish lost 54-56. It was a heartbreaking defeat for the five who had shown courage and determination all the way.

Steve Freeland tallied 25 markers as we trounced Lancaster again. The Irish dropped a verdict to Shamokin, but closed out their season with decisive wins over Lebanon and Delone. Watson completed the season by winning the league scoring crown.

Golf Enthusiasts. The 1961 edition of the Irish links squad are: Tom March, Chet Landis, Terry Stewart, John Watson, Mike Sibol, and Tom Luckman.

Drop! Tom Luckman completes a birdie on the fourth green as other senior members, John Watson and Mike Sibol, look on.

Fore. No. 1 man on the links team, John Watson, displays a powerful drive on the Out Door Country Club course.

Freedom of Speech

Speak Up Men! Members of the Junior Forensic Club who also participate in Optimist oratory are (standing) Richard Harteis, James Listorti, Richard Bortolomea, Robert Husson, Henry Topper, (seated) Bertram Zech, William Sterling, and Joseph Topley.

"Non Memorize That" commands Father Flavian to the members of the Senior Forensic Club. Thomas Felty, Margo Curran, and Jeanne Buckingham appear gleeful, while Peter Mangan takes the words to heart.

What Price Debate. Our Senior debaters Rita Taylor, Patrick Drayton, and Judith Pfeiffer know it meant meeting twice a week at old Y.C. during the hot summer under the able tutelage of Rosalie Dunn ('58). Rosalie most generously contributed her time and talents to the interested students of our school.

Passing a Constitution. Father Flavian Dailey, T.O.R., Moderator, and the officers of the Delta Sigma—Daniel Wagner, Henry Topper, Judith Pfeiffer, and Joan Comtois unanimously agree that "to incite and promote mature intellectual activity" is the first purpose of the newly formed Debate Society.

Striking a Formal Pose. Our debaters with Father Flavian are caught in a rare moment of inactivity. "Resolved .

That the United Nations Should Be Significantly Strengthened," their tournament debate topic, keeps them in deep discussion or in search of material in Y.C.'s library.

Arma Virumque Cano! Aeneas, dramatized by Neal Dunlevy, and his comrade, Theodore Lutter, encounter Aeneas's mother, Mary Deller, the goddess Venus, while on the hunt. Michael Sibol, Francis Zarnowski, Sandra Quickel and Jeanne Buckingham are engrossed in the portrayal of this Latin classic, "The Aeneid."

Double Header on Photography! Camera Club President, John Miltziano, shows how to set the lens on the enlarger. Simultaneously, shutter openings are illustrated by Vice President Michael Marks to the club members.

Pennies for Heaven! Zealous efforts of these deserving Homeroom Mission Representatives have earned for Y.C. students the many accolades awarded us by the Harrisburg Mission Unit.

Legal Tender! Coin Club members appear intent in examining their collection of early 1900 Liberty-head dimes

Y.C.'s Do-Goode's! The four Senior Red Cross Representatives and their moderator, Sister Caritas, smile enthusiastically over the returns of a recent civic project.

Channeling Our Interests

Receiving You Loud and Clear! Having successfully been contacted by another amateur station, three Senior members of the Radio Club, Robert Reed, Regina Grimek, and William Zeck, prepare to transmit a return message.

Information Please! The Senior Library Aides show enthusiasm checking over new books for circulation. At the desk, these girls render "encyclopedic service" to all accessible books.

Our Student Council transformed our Cafeteria into a French Cafe for the Homecoming Dance. William Schintz, Barbara Harteis, Robert Harteis and Rita Taylor take time out for refreshments. Garcon William Sterling, Freshman, serves.

Double Enchantment

Are the Stars Out Tonight? They will be after Senior Student Council Officers Bonita Frey, Robert Reed (headless), Regina Grimek, James Hoffman, John Brennan and Caroline Deardorff add finishing touches to the unique decorations for the Homecoming Dance.

The highlight of the Homecoming Dance glows with the acceptance of a bouquet of scarlet roses, graciously presented by President Peter Mangan. Our radiant Queen, Mary Ann Doll, reigns jubilant for the night.

The Prom Committee Indispensable! These Juniors set the wheels in motion for a night ever to be remembered.

Moonlight Serenade

Queen of the Prom! Joan Wagman beams happily on Mr. John Sinkovitz's presentation of her bouquet.

One April Night! York Catholic's students release their long pent-up exhilaration for the Junior-Senior Prom. Corsages and gowns fit the theme of "The Moonlight Serenade." Young hearts and lively feet bring alive the dance floor of the York Country Club—the traditional locale of our annual Prom.

We are at the apex now, at our book and our Senior year about to enter the world to try to advantageously put to use the Democratic principles taught us during our high school years. Let us review these formative years. Our Freshman year gave us our primary sense of growing up and joining an entirely new and different society. Sophomore year and we were no longer considered the 'infants of the school.' At the end of this year we made the big move, but we will always cherish fond memories of 459 West King. In this new school our Junior year was absorbed by much work and activities. The Prom always a mix to any year came as an especially delightful one to our class, and a forecast of things to come. Our Senior year brought dances, class rings, holidays, early mid-terms, recent graduation. And with graduation we have completed what undoubtedly is to be one of the most remembered years of our lives.

The end has come, but actually this end is only a beginning. Who can foretell the forthcoming tomorrow? These memories are in the future but the past has been very kind to us. Let us never forget our memorable days at York Catholic High.
